

The poster is for an 'Open Day Scoliosi' event. It features a background of faint, stylized human figures in various poses. A vertical line of red hearts runs down the center. The text is arranged in a clear, organized manner. At the top, there are logos for the University of Ancona and the Clinic. The main title 'OPEN DAY SCOLIOSI' is prominently displayed. Below it, a QR code is provided for more information. The event details, including the date, time, location, and responsible person, are listed. At the bottom, there are logos for the Italian Olympic Committee, the Ancona Sports Association, the Ancona Sanità company, and the University of Ancona.
